

Please do not water down Wisconsin's no call list. It has made a significant difference in the number of times we are pestered each night. If anything, the national law should be made tighter.